LETTER FROM COL. ROGERS.

HARRIS' CIRCULAR DENOUNCED.

Since our second page went to press, we have received a letter from Hon. S H. Rogers, dated at Smithfield, July 27th in which he says:

Editors News:

"I have just been handed a most infamous and lying circular issued by J. C. L. Harris, Chairman Committee of the Fourth Congressional District, dated Raleigh, N. C., July 26th 1872. He charges that Leach introduced the Tobacco bill. This is false as it was introduced by Mr. Dawes.

He says I voted for the bill. This is false.

He says I was ignorant of the provisions of the bill, and went to Gen. W. D. Jones' office, and inquired if such were the provisions of the law. This is infamously false. I had the bill with me from the beginning of the campaign, and went to Perry's office to get the instructions given by the Chief Revenue officer or by the Department, as I desired to have before me the instructions of the Department as to the official instruction.

In reference to my pay you know the statement to be infamously false.

In conclusion, there is not a word of truth in the circular. It is a mean attempt to injure me. All honest men should, and I think will condemn the reckless means to mislead the people.

The paper is put out when they think I cannot answer it, being out of Wake County. They hope to injure me by circulating this paper behind me.

* * * * * *

Yours Truly,

SION H. ROGERS.

Before receiving Col. Rogers' letter, the Chairman of the State Committee had issued a reply to Harris's circular, showing its misrepresentations and denouncing its misstatements. See the circular in our editorial columns.

THE BATTLE OF HUNGRY NECK.—About two years ago—perhaps not so long—a terrible fight took place, "one dark night," on Newbern street, at a locality designated as "Hungry Neck," between U. S. soldiers and some of the "Owls" of the city. Pistols were freely used—and "the skirmish on the line" was sharp for a spell. The police were running from their different beats to the scene of conflict; and "a gay time" promised well, if it ended in smoke. "No body hurt," was the report. A female was indicted for keeping a "disorderly house"—she was "bound over"—appeared, tried, and acquitted, as many of our citizens well remember who heard the eloquent defence made by the counsel, A. M. Lewis, Esq. There terminated the Battle of Hungry Neck. Well, what? This matter should have terminated in the magistrates' court. There the truth of a disorderly house could have been established, and the offending party made to pay the forfeit. Cases of such a frivolous nature should never trouble our courts—they are legitimate matter for the final jurisdiction of the Justices! and we are glad to see that our Mayor so views them, and disposes of them, as authorized to do, and thus promptly inflects punishment and adds to the fund of the city.

A STATE INSTITUTION.—We are pleased to learn that the Wilmington Life Insurance Company is in a prosperous condition, and that it is destined to become one of the most popular Companies in the country. Its managers are men of high character and first-class business qualifications and we are glad to know they are meeting with fine success.

This company is a North Carolina enterprise, and as such has peculiar claims upon our people.

NEW CITY MAP.—A gentleman has been engaged for sometime in sketching our city, with the view of making a complete map thereof. We have examined some of his sketches, and we are favorably impressed with the undertaking. Several squares, in sketch, are to nature, true. The buildings, the crossing, the trees, and every object of interest is in the sketch, and the whole in map form, enlarged and colored, will make a beautiful parlor ornament, as well as a convenient reference. We shall look with interest to the completion of this new map.

ORIGINAL LONG PERRY CONNUNDRUM.—Why was not P. W. Perry removed from office by Grant?

PERSONAL.—Judge Sneed, a native of North Carolina, and of the Supreme Court of Tennessee, accompanied by his niece, Miss Watkins, is on a visit to this city.

DEATH OF THE CHIEF CLERK OF THE WAR DEPARMENT.—It is with much regret that we have to announce the death of John Potts, Esq., for many years Chief Clerk of the War Department. He died, in the fifty-fifth year of his age, yesterday morning at half-past 2 o'clock, at his residence, on Seventeenth street, after a short but severe illness. Mr. Potts was much esteemed by all who knew him, and as a public officer was held in the utmost confidence by all of his associates. He was a native of this city, and was employed in the War Department for the past thirty-six years, thirteen years of which he occupied the position of chief clerk.—Wash. Patriot, July 25.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

A GRAND MASS MEETING IN GREENSBORO.

OVER 3,000 PEOPLE IN ATTENDANCE.

SPEECH OF SENATOR SCHURZ.

GREAT ENTHUSIASM.

[Special Dispatch to the Daily News.]

GREENSBORO, July 27.

This morning a committee of gentlemen composed of both parties, Liberal Republicans and Democrats, Messrs. Gilmer, Staples, Goodloe, Duffy and others, with the press reporters in the city left of the 11 o'clock train to meet the Hon. Carl Schurz at Reidsville, on the R. & D. R. R.

At 3:30 o'clock the train returned, bringing a large number of persons along the line of the road.

Senator Schurz was received at the depot by a large concourse of people, who escorted him to the Benbow House. After half an hour's rest the distinguished Senator was conducted to Mendenhall's grove, where a stand was erected and seats prepared for a vast concourse of people. The number present was variously estimated at from 2,000 to 2,500, though the numbers were much larger in the morning—many of the country people leaving before the arrival of the cars, there being some doubt as to his coming.

He was introduced by Col. John A Gilmer, and received with great applause. Mr. Schurz said that he appeared before his audience under very unfavorable circumstances, having travelled the past four days and nights without sleep or rest. He said he was a Republican, what the Southern people never liked, an abolitionist. He also supported the Reconstruction Acts of Congress, after Reconstruction new duties devolved upon us. The results of the war had been incorporated in the Constitution, then it was that we true Republicans planted the flag of Amnesty, then it was that Horace Greeley said let every man vote.

The tendencies of parties as they grow old become corrupt. They forgot the principles which gave rise to them, and aim only to perpetuate power for sake of patronage that goes with it. How was it with the Democratic party, I appeal to you gentlemen of the Democratic party present, if that was not the history of your party. He referred by way of illustration to Tammany Hall ring. The Republican party had shown the same tendency to grow corrupt with long possession of power. He then referred to corrupt carpet-bag governments of the South to prove his assertion. The consequence was the true Republicans left the party of power, and came forward to vindicate the rights of the Southern people.

He then referred to Southern Ku-Klux outrages, and said, there was foundation for the charges, though they were greatly exaggerated, no doubt for party purposes. Many honest and good men at the North were deeply grieved at the existence of such a state of affairs, and were induced to favor the adoption of harsh measures to suppress the outrages, but he did not think it was necessary to to invade the rights of the whole people to punish the wrongs done to few individuals. The punishment of such crimes should be left to local governments, under the present Ku Klux law, Deputy Marshals in North Carolina have writs for arrest of fifteen hundred men which they are using in terrorism for the purpose of electing Grant.

He had also learned that a large number of Deputy Marshalls had been appointed for this purpose, and he did not know if he was not now addressing a mass meeting of Deputy Marshals. He spoke of the interference of the government officials in the mail service, said that infamous circulars were being inserted in newspapers and directed to citizens, and that federal arms protected the officials in those wrongs. Having denounced the carpet-baggers, he must frankly say to his Southern friends that they had not done their whole duty immediately after the war, that if they had come forward and said to former slaves, we acquiesce in the rights given you and will sustain you in them, the miserable band of Northern adventurers would not have gained their confidence, but this was expecting too much of men influenced by passions and prejudices of the natural result of the struggle.

These adventurers that have robbed you were countenanced not only by the National Republican party, but by the Administration. He then appeals to the Republicans if they could expect North Carolina to be Republican under these circumstances.

He then proceeded to state the organization of the Liberal Republican movement, which commenced in Missouri in 1870 and culminated in the adoption of the Cincinnati platform by the largest ever assembled the United States. After reiterating the leading principles of the Cincinnati platform, he says, upon that Horace Greeley and Gratz Brown were nominated, and under their banner the true Republicans march regardless of the epithets of soreheads, Democrats, &c.

Mr. Shurz then refers to the Greensboro speech of Secretary Boutwell, in which he repels the charge of the Secretary that Democrats are opposed to immigration, also that they are opposed to education, but he failed to tell you that the N. C. Republican party had stolen the school fund, and therefore if they were in favor of it what could they have done.

He eloquently replied to the remarks of Secretary Boutwell in opposing the clasping of hands across the bloody chasm, and said to the Confederate soldier, many of whom he was now addressing, that as a federal soldier, he spoke their sentiments when he offered his hand across the chasm. The Radical party opposed the great movement because when the chasm was bridged, as it will inevitably be, reconciliation will ensue and their occupation will be gone.

He referred to the great uprising of Southern men, old Confederate soldiers, &c., in supporting a man whose life had been devoted to the principles of freedom, that they had always opposed. He asked what did it mean, but the willingness of the Southern people to join hands in the great cause of Government Reform and an honest Administration. After a brief address to the colored men present, Mr. Schurz closed his able speech amidst the hearty applause of his large audience. Messrs. D. R. Goodloe and John A. Gilmer were next called upon, who excused themselves, and the meeting adjourned.

Grand Mass Meeting—Reported Outrage to Gov. Harrimon False.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., July 27.

A Grand Mass Meeting will be held here Monday 29th. Senator Schurz, Gov. Walker, of Virginia, M. P. O'Conner, of South Carolina, Gov. Graham and others will speak. A large crowd and a glorious time is expected.

The reported outrage on the person of Gov. Harrimon, of New Hampshire, speaking at this place, is a perversion of facts. He was interrupted only by some fun-loving boys by cries for Greely and questions; this was the extent of the so-called outrage. No pistols drawn—no occasion for it. No personal violence offered.

The Erection of a Greeley and Brown Flag Pole in Charlotte.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., July 27.

A Greeley and Brown flag pole, one hundred and ten feet high, was erected on the public square at this place today, at 5 o'clock on the very spot where the Mecklenburg Declaration of American Independence was declared, on the 20th May, 1775.

The Mass Meeting to be held Wednesday, the 29th, promises to be a grand success. OBSERVER.

The Geneva Arbitration.

GENEVA, July 27.

The recent interruptions of the sittings of the Board of Arbitration occured through necessary re-examination of the English law on the question regarding the construction of privateering vessels in British ports, and also to investigate as to whether the British admirality used sufficient diligence in preventing these vessels from going to sea. Of four cases advanced, England repudiates three, and in the fourth she contends that the admirality acted promptly, although the police hesitated to take proper method to prevent her departure.

The Court is also considering the question of allowing interest on amounts awarded. It is stated that a majority of the Board are unfavorable to such allowance, and is regarded as probable that after careful investigation of each case, the tribunal will fix the amount of indemnity to be paid by England at a gross sum.

Charles Francis Adams preserves firm attitude in maintaining the claims of the United States. Conciliatory disposition universally manifested by American representatives.

COL. W. E. CAMERON.

This distinguished campaign orator from Virginia will address our people at the following times and places:

FRAUDULENT VOTERS--BE ON THE ALERT.

We have direct and positive information that a large number of negroes from Virginia, have been recently brought into North Carolina.

We understand that some seventy-five or eighty reached Halifax County last week, from that State.

We can only say to our friends everywhere, WATCH THE POLLS!

Arrest all fraudulent voters.

THE RADICALS EXPECT TO CARRY THIS ELECTION BY IMPORTING NEGROES FROM VIRGINIA, SOUTH CAROLINA AND TENNESSEE.

No man has a right to vote who has not been a resident of the State TWELVE MONTHS, and of the county in which he offers to vote, THIRTY DAYS.

Every Democrat can challenge any voter on the day of election.

If we are defeated, it will be for want of vigilance on the part of our friends.

Let every township have a committee of challengers.

If there are no challengers appointed in your township, constitute yourself a challenger, and stop all fraud and rascality.

Be at the polls early, and remain there until they are closed.

You cannot be too vigilant.

See that no illegal vote is cast in your township.

See that no imported negroes from Virginia, South Carolina and Tennessee are allowed to vote.

Take down the names of all who are allowed to vote without evidence of citizenship.

Fraud should be arrested on the spot.

If we have a fair election, there is no doubt of our success.

Watch the polls!

SENATOR RANSOM.

We are truly gratified that our noble and distinguished Senator, Hon. M. W. Ransom, is making such a fine impression in the West. His eloquent and powerful appeals are producing a deep feeling in that section, and his efforts are spoken of as masterpieces of eloquence, logic and statesmanship. We have published accounts of his speeches at Asheville and Marion.

A gentleman who heard him at the latter place informs us that it was the most appropriate and splendid speech he ever heard, and that its effect upon the audience was very perceptible. After its close, a number of his old comrades in arms, who had not before seen him since the close of the war, rushed to the stand, and with eyes streaming with tears, and hearts too deep for utterance, grasped the hand of their trusted and beloved commander, and seemed overcome with deep emotions. The scene was an affecting one, and touched the hearts of all who witnessed it.

Gen. Ransom is bending his whole energies in this contest—for his heart is in it, and no man is doing more than he.

MASS MEETING AT COMPANY SHOPS.

The Democrats and Conservatives are making immense preparations for the grand Mass meeting and Barbecue at Company Shops, on Wednesday the 31st of August.

Carl Schurz, Senators Tipton, Doolittle and Ransom, Gov. Vance, Judge Merrimon and other eminent speakers have been invited to attend.

This will be one of the largest meetings ever held in the State.

It will be under the management of Capt. E. S. Parker, Chairman of the County Executive Committee of Alamance.

If every County Executive Committee had such a Chairman as Parker, we would elect Merrimon by an over whelming majority.

THE Radicals swindled the State.

THE RADICAL CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR SUSPENDED SEVEN STATUTES.

Can you vote for Caldwell?

RETAINED, NOT "RELIEVED."

A telegram informed us yesterday that in case of Supervisor Perry, the word "relieved" should have been retained. So that Perry is retained still in the Department. This may be a relief to Perry, if not to the public.

IF every true son of North Carolina, will stand at the post of duty and of honor, the sun-light of a grand and glorious victory will dawn upon the State on next Thursday. The dark night of Radicalism will break away, and the shouts of a noble Democratic triumph will peal in acclamations of rejoicing from one end of the State to the other.

A VOTE for the Radical party is a vote for crime, cruelty, dishonesty, lawlessness and military despotism.

The Radical Convention that nominated Caldwell endorsed all that was done under Governor Holden's Administration.

A VOTE for Caldwell is a vote in favor of lawlessness, usurpation and crime—in favor of all the atrocities of the Kirk war—in favor of all the violations of the rights of citizens perpetrated under Gov. Holden's administration!

CAN YOU VOTE FOR ALL THESE WRONGS?

THE Democratic Legislature in one year saved over four hundred thousand dollars in the annual expenses of the Government.

"OPPRESSIVE TOBACCO LAW."

Under this head J. C. Logan Harris, Esq., Chairman of the Republican Committee of the Fourth Congressional District, has sent out a large number of circulars, especially to the Counties of Chatham and Johnston. This circular charges that,

"JAMES MADISON LEACH, Democratic Member of Congress from the Fifth District first introduced the bill," and that "the oppressive and unjust features of the law are said to have been incorporated in that bill."

The Era also charges that Hon. Sion H. Rogers, Democratic Candidate for Congress, voted for its passage and aided to make the bill a law.

Hon. D. M. Barringer, Chairman of the Conservative Executive Committee of the State has thought proper to issue the following card to the people to people of the Fourth and Fifth Congressional Districts, which is a complete and triumphant vindication of Gen. Leach and Col. Rogers from the charges contained in the circular of the Chairman of the Republican Committee.

COL. ROGERS INFORMS US THAT HE VOTED AGAINST ALL THE ODIGUS FEATURES OF THE TOBACCO LAW.

Let no man be deceived by Radical misrepresentation on the eve of the election.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FOURTH AND FIFTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS.

THE TOBACCO TAX.

FALSE AND RECKLESS CHARGES ON THE EVE OF ELECTION.

Be not deceived by false charges and mis-statements made by reckless politicians to effect the election.

Let no unfounded assertions against well known facts, mislead the Conservative voters of the Fourth and Fifth Congressional District. An address to the people issued on July 26th, by J. C. L. Harris, headed—"Oppressive Tobacco Law" is intended to mislead the people. Its statements are denied emphatically. They are against the facts.

J. C. L. Harris states that Hon. J. M. Leach introduced the iniquitous Radical Tobacco Law. This is untrue.

The Revenue Bill was introduced by the Radical Chairman of the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Leach did offer an amendment to that Bill to reduce the tax on tobacco from 32 to 16 cents per pound. The following extract from a card just issued by Mr Leach shows this:

TOBACCO TAX.

My amendment to this part of the Internal Revenue Bill was to reduce the tax manufactured or plug tobacco from 32 to 16 cents per pound, but knowing the Senate would not agree to a reduction lower than 20 cents pound, in consultation with friends and conference with members of committee of Ways and Means, I agreed to 20 cents uniform tax, and so it passed both Houses, and is the law. And the newspapers of more than a half dozen States complimented me for my persistent and successful efforts on the question, so vastly important to the South and to North Carolina. This reduces the tax on tobacco about fifteen million dollars annually—thus leaving annually in the South about eight millions of dollars, and several hundred thousands of dollars a year in this Congressional district, that has heretofore been collected and carried away to enrich the North and fill the coffers of the government.

Is not this effecting something—aye, much, for your good, and for the benefit of our people of all classes? For, remember, the vast amount of money that by this reduction will be left amongst us annually by making money plentier, will increase the value of your property, and enable you, in a few years to borrow at the old rate of 6 per cent.

LEAF TOBACCO AND PEDLERS.

I OPPOSED, WITH ALL MY MIGHT, (and so did almost every Conservative member of Congress) the UNJUST AND UNFAIR RESTRICTIONS MADE AGAINST DEALERS IN LEAF TOBACCO AND PEDLERS, and denounced it, but the Radical members who vote against us in every thing we want, said that this provision against leaf dealers and pedlers should go in the bill to prevent them running the blockade, and thus avoiding the paying of taxes, &c.

So that this wicked provision was fixed and voted in by the Republican party, the party my competitor so much loves, and whose President, Gen Grant, said in his message, that there must be NO REDUCTION of taxes on tobacco or liquor, thus continuing so far as his influence went, his petty tyranny over our section and State.

Now let every honest man do me justice in this, though demagogues and newspapers continue their falsehoods.

I introduced a bill to repeal the tax on brandy, and reduce it to 50 cents, all told, on whiskey.—Extracts from J. M. Leach's card to his constituents.

J. C. L. Harris also states that Sion H. Rogers the Conservative Candidate, voted for that bill and aided by his vote to make it a law.

Mr. Rogers voted against all the oppressive clauses of that infamous Radical law. These iniquitous clauses were put in the bill notwithstanding the opposition of Leach, Rogers and nearly every Conservative member of Congress. The bill was written according to the recommendation or President Grant and was passed by the votes of the Radical Congressmen.

It is Radical Law. Radicals are alone responsible for it.

D. M. BARRINGER,
Chairman Dem. Cons. Ex. Com.
July 27, 1872.

THE Radical candidate for Governor wants the great writ of Habeas Corpus suspended in the South. This is putting the military over the civil law.

LET EVERY DEMOCRATIC VOTE IN NORTH CAROLINA BE POLLED ON THE FIRST DAY OF AUGUST.

A VOTE FOR CALDWELL IS A VOTE FOR THE ENDORSEMENT OF ALL THE FRAUDS, CORRUPTIONS AND USURPATIONS OF THE RADICAL PARTY.

OUR DISADVANTAGES.

We must not underrate the power of our political adversaries.

They have the whole patronage of the Government on their side.

They have a solid, compact organization of seventy-five or eighty thousand negroes arrayed against us.

They have any number of Revenue officials, Deputy Marshals, spies and informers employed at $5.00 per day, to do nothing but to work for the Radical ticket—to brow-beat, intimidate and threaten peaceable citizens.

They have large sums of money at their command, to buy up and buy off those who will sell their principles for gain.

They have indicted a large number of men who are promised pardon and amnesty, if they vote the Radical ticket.

They are circulating the most unblushing falsehoods all over the State to injure our cause and to blast the private reputations of our candidates.

They are importing negroes from the adjoining States to vote the Radical ticket.

They are working day and night—all the time, as if their very lives depended on the result.

They are capable of resorting to any trick or any species of fraud to compass their ends.

We have all this and more to fight against.

But relying on a just cause—relying on the virtue and patriotism of our people, we still hope to come off conquerors and to win the fight against all odds.

The Radicals acknowledge we will beat them on a full vote, but they boast this will not be given.

Let us poll our full strength and victory is certain.

Vote for Rogers.

THE COUNTY CANVASS.

The Democratic Conservative candidates for Wake are laboring with great zeal and ability.

Gen. Cox is everywhere carrying dismay into the ranks of the enemy by his bold and determined attacks.

His friends express hopes of his election. If he should succeed in defeating Harris, it will indeed be a great triumph.

Richard H. Battle and W. H. Pace, Esqs., are doing yeoman service. Mr. Battle has an established reputation as an able and pointed speaker. Mr. Pace is making an enviable reputation as a fine canvasser and impressive debater. We have heard Mr. A. G. Jones' efforts spoken of very favorably.

LET EVERY DEMOCRATIC VOTER BE AT THE POLLS ON THE 1ST DAY OF AUGUST.

A FULL DEMOCRATIC VOTE WILL INSURE THE SUCCESS OF OUR TICKET.

GOOD NEWS.

Read the article "Com" in another column.

The information there given is the opinion of a gentleman of great prudence and discretion, who has an extensive correspondence all over the State. He claims the Legislature by a two-thirds majority and a handsome majority for our whole State ticket.

Let our friends be of good cheer. The day of our deliverance is at hand if we only do our duty. "He who would be free must himself strike the blow!"

Courage, friends! Be firm, be active, be vigilant!

VOTE FOR SION H. ROGERS FOR CONGRESS.

Vote against William A. Smith, the Radical nominee, the friend of Caldwell and Grant.

"THE CRY OF STOP THIEF!"

The Era professes great alarm about one Brumenberger, or some such outlandish name, who, it alleges, has come to North Carolina to stuff ballot boxes on the day of election in the interests of the Democrats.

The Democrats scorn the assistance of Mr. Brumenberger or any other individual, in such low trickery and meanness. Such conduct would be more in consonance with the character of the Radical party, whose corruptions in this State are notorious.

Stuffing battot-boxes indeed! It is the old cry of "stop thief!"

All that we ask is a free, fair, unshackled election and our success is sure.

NOT CAPABLE OF ANY CRIME.

Hon. John Pool, Radical Senator, who sent out under his frank, throughout the State, the circular headed "Read And Circulate," says in his letter to Judge Merrimon of July the 8th that he DOES NOT BELIEVE JUDGE MERRIMON IS CAPABLE OF ANY CRIME!

THE ADDRESS.

Read the following address from Hon. D. M. Barringer and W. S. Mason, Esq., Chairmen, respectively of the Democratic and Liberal Republican Committees of the State.

The words have the ring of the true metal, and contain the key-notes for the remaining few days till the election.

Freemen of North Carolina! let us struggle bravely to win the fight over corruption and despotism! Register, vote, and WORK diligently, VIGILANTLY, UNCEASINGLY.

TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

FELLOW CITIZENS:—We address you as Democrats and Conservatives—as Liberal Republicans, as honest men of whatever name or party, friends of republican liberty and good government:

The great political contest in this State is about to close. It has been ardently and zealously fought on both sides.

On the one side, you see all the power and official influence of the State and Federal governments through their vast horde of office-holders, of every kind and degree brought into active and unscrupulous use to sustain themselves in control of the money and immense patronage of the government, not for the benefit of the people who pay the taxes, but for themselves and the worst partisan purposes.

In this State, we have witnessed even the unpatriotic and indecent exhibition of Cabinet ministers on the hustings, for the avowed purpose of affecting the result of our election in August as well as that throughout the Union in November, in their own favor, thus directly bringing "the patronage of the government in conflict with the freedom of elections."

On the other side are rallied the friends of freedom, of honest, faithful, intelligent administration of public affairs, of economy and official integrity, of education for all the people, of sound public credit, of law and order, of local self-government, of real civil service reform, of universal amnesty and amity, and of all the safeguards of civil liberty, for all alike, of whatever race or color.

In this great struggle, we are battling for these high and essential principles of free government against dishonesty in the public service, against fraud, corruption and peculation in every department of the government, against ignorance and notorious official incapacity, against reckless disregard of the laws and Constitutions of the land, against centralization of all the powers of the Government, and the absorption of all the reserved rights of the States of the Union, and of the people through a threatened civil and military despotism at Washington. These are the imminent dangers which surround us.

In such a contest, we will not doubt the decision of the people of this State on the 1st of August. This decision will not only affect in its results, the political situation in this State for years to come, but indirectly and morally, that of the whole Union. The vote of August here will influence, in a greater or less degree, that of the Union in November.

We, therefore, urge every true-hearted North Carolinian to do his whole duty in this battle for freedom—for real peace and good-will between all the sections and especially for the prosperity and happiness of our own people.

We are in a position to assure you, from full and undoubted information, that if this is done, a glorious victory awaits our cause on Thursday next.

The news from every quarter of the State is full of cheer and encouragement for our friends. Let every one of us, then, do his whole duty. Be active and earnest. Be calm but vigilant. Let there be no disorder, no violence, but let every one see, each for the other, that his rights are maintained at the ballot box.

Let every citizen, entitled to vote, be free and unmolested in the independent exercise of this high privilege. See that no illegal vote be given, and that every violation of the law is punished by due process of law. Look out for attempts at intimidation and gross frauds on the part of our adversaries. Challenge every illegal or doubtful vote. Examine closely the registration books. See that you have the right ticket and put it in the right place. See that all our friends vote in their respective townships. Work from now till and on the day of election. Stand firm, shoulder to shoulder, in defence of your rights; and the sun will go down on a glorious triumph for our cause—for free principles and good government, when it sets on the 1st of August. Let every friend of our noble cause and of our good old State do his whole duty in this great contest for the liberty of the people and all will be right.

A Pitiful Condition.

It is a sad thing to pass through life only half alive. Yet there are thousands whose habitual condition is one of languor and debility. They complain of no specific disease; they suffer no positive pain; but they have no relish for anything which affords mental or sensuous pleasure. In nine cases out of ten this state of lassitude and torpor arises from a morbid stomach. Indigestion destroys the energy of both mind and body. When the waste of nature is not supplied by a due and regular assimilation of the food, every organ is starved, every function interrupted.

Now, what does common sense suggest under these circumstances of depression? The system needs rousing and strengthening; not merely for an hour or two, to sink afterward into a more pitiable condition than ever (as it assuredly would do if an ordinary alcoholic stimulant were resorted to,) but radically and permanently.

How is this desirable object to be accomplished? The answer to this question, founded on the unvarying experience of a quarter of a century, is easily given. Infuse new vigor into the digestive organs by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Do not waste time by administering temporary remedies, but wake the system up by recuperating the fountain-head of physical strength and energy, the great organ upon which all the other organs depend for their nurture and support.

By the time that a dozen doses of the great vegetable tonic and invigorant have been taken, the feeble frame of the dyspeptic will begin to feel its benign influence. Appetite will be created, and with appetite the capacity to digest what it craves. Persevere until the cure is complete—until healthful blood, fit to be the material of flesh and muscle, bone and nerve and brain, flows through the channels of circulation instead of the watery pabulum with which they have heretofore been imperfectly nourished. june 12-1m

THE HISTORY OF A NATIONAL REMEDY.—Here is the history of the most celebrated tonic of the age in a nutshell. In 1860, it was announced that a certain combination of vegetable ingredients, with a pure diffusive stimulant, was working wonders in the cure of chronic dyspepsia, nervous debility, liver complaint, periodical fevers, rheumatism and constitutional weakness. The unpretending name given to the specific was PLANTATION BITTERS. The statement attracted the attention of invalids everywhere. The new remedy received a fair trial, and the results more than confirmed all that had been said in its praise. Thenceforward it was a grand success. The business columns of the press spread the glorious news far and wide, and the martyrs to indigestion, biliousness, physical prostration and premature decay, as if by common consent, sought relief from the new vegetable restorative. They found what they sought. From that time to the present the increase in the demand for Plantation Bitters has been one of the most striking events in this age.

☞ For Coughs, Bronchitis and Consumption, in its early stages, nothing equals Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

DR. TUTT'S PILLS is a purely vegetable concentration for keeping the Bowels in natural motion and cleansing the system of all impurities, and a positive cure for Constipation. They restore the disease Liver, Stomach and Kidneys, to a healthy action, while at the same time they brace and invigorate the whole system.

ROME, GA., January 11, 187[illegible].

DR. WM. H. TUTT:

Dear Sir—Having used your Liver Pills and finding none that have done my wife or myself as much good, I would like to know if they would do as well North as here. I intend going North in March, and if they will have the same effect as in the climate, I want to take them on with me. Hoping to hear from you soon,

I remain, your obed't servant,

SENATOR WILSON DISAPPOINTED.—A telegram from Goldsboro of the 23rd to the New York Tribune says: Last night a band of music proceeded to the hotel to serenade General Bradley T. Johnson, of Virginia. The first piece played was "Dixie" Senator Wilson was stopping at the same hotel, and when the music struck up he came down stairs to respond, but was told by the clerk that it was not intended for him, and the Senator retreated to his room. The crowd received the joke with cheers for Greeley. There is no enthusiasm here for Wilson. Yesterday evening he was observed, apparently in a desponding mood, sitting on one of the street corners with only three negro companions.

Death of Hon. A. H. Arrington.

Archibald Hunter Arrington breathed his last at his residence, near Hilliardston, Nash county, on Saturday, the 20th inst.

Mr. Arrington had been in delicate health for a long time, and every thing that medical skill, and the attentions of friends could do to alleviate his sufferings and prolong his life, was done.

He was sixty-two years of age at the time of his death. He was twice married. His first wife was Mary Arrington, and his second was Kate Wimberly, both of whom he survived. He leaves eight children, who have the deepest sympathy of this whole community.

Among the distinguished sons of Carolina, who have worked for her prosperity and welfare, and whose lives have been eminent for shining virtues, both public and private, the name of A. H. Arrington will ever occupy a conspicuous position. In his death, Nash county, where he was born and raised, has sustained the loss of her most highly honored and distinguished citizen, and North Carolina, his native and beloved State, to which he was devoted with all the affection of a true son, has given up one of her truest and best.

In all the high and resposible positions to which Mr. Arrington has been called by his people, he has always been true to his principles, his pledges and his honest convictions. At a very early age he was elected to the United States Congress from the Raleigh Newbern District and subsequently represented the Newbern District, defeating Hon. Edward Stanly, recently deceased, in one of the hottest contested campaigns perhaps ever known in the State.

Mr. Arrington was a member of the Convention of 1861, and was sent as a delegate from this District to the Peace Convention in Philadelphia soon after the war. He represented this District in the Confederate Congress and while in Richmond was especially distinguished for his kindness to the soldiers, whose calls on him were never slighted. To the wounded and sick he was always attentive and took the deepest interest in them. For his many kindnesses in this respect many a poor southern soldier will read with a sorrowful heart the sad news of the death of their friend.

While in all public positions, Mr. Arrington won for himself an honorable name, yet it was in his private relations, in his home, where his virtues were brightest. No man ever lived who was more true and devoted to his family and friends. His hospitality was unbounded. He was generous and charitable to all. His neighbors loved him like a brother, and on last Sabbath, the large number who attended his funeral, and the sad and melancholy faces that surrounded his grave, gave unmistakable evidences of the deep hold he held upon the affections of his countrymen. His funeral was preached by Elder R. D. Hart, from the following text:

"As for man, his days are as grass; as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth, for the wind passeth over it and it is gone, and the place thereof shall know it no more."

A. H. Arrington is dead. One by one, the good old men of a past age lie down to sleep with their fathers. Their good names and deeds are rich legacies

Murder Trial in Lancaster, Virginia --Acquittal of the Prisoner.

A correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, writing from Sitwalton, Lancaster county, Va., under date of the 22nd inst., says:

The trial of Richard Kern, for the murder of Captain Phillip Smith, which has been in progress here for a week, has ended in the acquittal of the prisoner. The particulars of the alleged murder are substantially as follows: The prisoner had ejected Mrs. Brown, a widow, and her five children from property in the county claimed by himself, but which had been occupied and claimed by her family for a long time, and upon which, it is stated, her brother had paid taxes for sixteen years. Captain Smith, on hearing of the affair, proceeded to the house, saw Kern, and offered to pay him to allow the widow to retain possession until the law could decide whose property it was. He seems, however, to have been received by Kern as an intruder. After a short colloquy, and while Smith was about seventeen yards distant from Kern, the latter raised his gun. Smith, it is claimed, entreated him "not to shoot." The gun was fired, however, and Smith was killed.

The deceased was a nephew of ex-Governor William Smith, of Virginia, and during the war was a captain in Mosby's command. He also served as a captain on Stonewall Jackson's staff, was at his side when he fell, and bore him in his arms to a place of safety.—His horse was killed by the same volley that struck the great chieftain down.—During the great flood in the Shanendoah river, two years ago, Captain Smith saved the lives of eighteen persons by his own personal efforts. He was a christian and a brave man, and although he had but lately removed here, his death has caused a deep regret especially under the sad circumstances connected with it.

General Martinez's Assault on San Luis and its Repulse by the National Guards—Government Success on the Frontier—Plans of Trevino and Quiraga.

A correspondent of the Herald, writing from Matamoras, under date of July 23d, says: The government forces having been generally withdrawn from San Luis Potosi when General Rocha advanced on Monterey, the revolutionary General Martinez took the opportunity to attack San Luis with six hundred calvary, but after a a fight of several hours he was repulsed by the National Guards and citizens, with considerable loss. General Rocha has despatched a calvary force in pursuit of Martinez. Both parties of Monterey are inactive.

The revolution in the State of Tamaulipas having been suppressed, the whole frontier of the States of Nuevo Leon and Cohahulia are in possession of the government, leaving the insurgents without a port or single point of importance, and the country being practically pacified, the military authorities to-day issued a proclamation raising the state of siege, annulling martial law, abolishing the passport system and other military restrictions which have prevailed for several months restoring the civil rule.

Colonel Bamirez's regiment arrived from Monterey this morning, and will occupy the fortifications, relieving the National Guard, which will be disbanded.

General Ceballos is expected soon to assume the command of the line of the Rio Grande. General Rocha, at Monterey, will operate against the revolutionists still in the mountains.

TREVINO AND QUIROGA.

It is believed that the commission sent by Generals Trevino and Quiroga to the city of Mexico have made terms with the government, and that the revolutionary chiefs will submit to the authority of President Juarez or leave the county after disbanding their followers.

Wonderful Escape from a Shark.

The Gloucester, (Va.) Herald says: On last Monday morning, as the young ladies at Mr. Robert Selden's were out bathing, enjoying to the full the delightful exercise and breeze, one of the little girls who accompanied them saw something approaching which alarmed her, and calling the attention of the others, they discovered that it was a shark making towards them rapidly. The distance to the shore was so great that escape seemed impossible, and the terror of the position almost paralyzed them. But thoughtful of each other, even in this trying hour, they bravely stood together, the strong helping and urging on the weak.

Miss Mary Brewer was literally dragged ashore in a fainting condition by the efforts of Miss C. Selden, while Miss M. B. Selden and Miss N. Brewer drove the trembling little ones before them. Just as they all sprang safely on the bank the horrible monster floundered in the shoal-water a short distance behind them, showing his full length—ten feet.

A fisherman out in his canoe witnessed the scene, but could give no help, as the shark was between him and the shore. He says he supposed escape impossible. To some one of them a death too fearful to think of might have come. A merciful Providence spared them; and as a warning to others who might venture in like manner, this account is given.

REMARKABLE VITALITY.—A remarkacase of vitality is attracting great attention from the medical profession in Chicago. About the middle of last month a woman of the name of Simons was shot by her husband in that city, the bullet entering the brain. It was supposed the wound would result fatally within a day or two, but at the expiration of twenty-five days the woman was still alive, and gaining strength gradually. The bullet remains in her head, but its precise location is unknown, the surgeons not having dared to probe for it for fear of hurting the brain. At the last accents she was able to talk with some effort, but her memory was confused. Still she was able to give an intelligent account of the manner in which she received her injury, saving that her husband fired three times before he hit her, she dodging him in the half dark room.

The "Old Practical Printer," Jesse White, still lives, and up to within a very short period worked at the case in his office, although he will be 83 years of age on the 18th of August next.—Fredricksburg (Va.) Herald.

A. JUDSON MASON, Esq., Clerk of the Superior Court of Rowan County, died

A President for Thirty-six Hours.

A correspondent of the Kansas City Times recently interviewed David R. Atchison, who, upon the death of William R. King, a month after his inauguration as Vice President in 1853, succeeded to the Vice Presidency, when the following strange and forgotten fact in American history was brought to mind—that Atchison was legally President of the United States for about thirty-six hours. We extract as follows:

Reporter—You were President of the United States for about thirty-six hours, were you not?

General—Yes; you see Mr. Pierce's term expired at midnight Saturday, and this being a Christian country, of course nothing was done on Sunday. Mr. Buchanan was inaugurated at noon on Monday. Therefore, as President of the Senate, I succeeded to the Presidency when Mr. Pierce's term was out [laughingly;] but I had no realization of my high position until about ten o'clock Sunday morning. We had been hard at work in the Senate finishing up business, and having lost much sleep, I would probably have slept all day had I not been wakened up by some personal friends who came to congratulate me, and secure positions for certain parties. In order to do everything in proper style, I appointed a full Cabinet, and then it is said that my administration was the most successful and popular one ever known, there not being a removal or appointment during my whole term.

SPECIAL FEATURES AND ADVANTAGES.

1st. No restriction on Residence or Travel.

2d. No extra charge on lives of Females.

3d. Policies incontestable after Five Years

4th. The rates of Interest on the Funds of the Company are higher than those on the Funds of Companies located in other States, thus insuring larger Dividends to Policy Holders.

5th. The Directors and Officers of the Company are prominent NORTH CAROLINIANS, who are KNOWN to be men of INTEGRITY and WORTH.

6th. The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, steps having been taken to increase the Capital Stock to $500,000.

7th. ALL THE FUNDS OF THE COMPANY ARE INVESTED IN THIS STATE AND CIRCULATED AMONG OUR OWN PEOPLE. This fact should commend the Company, above all others, to North Carolinians. It is well known that hundreds of tuousands of Dollars in Life Premenms are annually sent North to enrich Northern Capitalists, thus continually draining our people of immense amounts which should be kept at home. On this ground the friends of this Company confidently appeal to every son of the Old North State, and ask their support for this HOME INSTITUTION, which, while it offers substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up HOME INTERESTS.

NEVER GIVE UP.

Never give up! it is wiser and better
Always to hope than once to despair;
Throw off the load of doubt's cankering fetter,
And break the dark spell of tyrannical care,
Never give up! or the burthen may sink you,
Providence kindly has mingled the cup,
And in all trials or troubles bethink you,
The watchword of life should be—Never give up.

Never give up! there are chances and changes
Helping the hopeful a hundred to-one,
And 'mid the chaos, high wisdom arranges
Ever success—if you'll only hope on.
Never give up! for the wisest is boldest,
Knowing that Providence mingles the cup,
And of all the maxims the best as the oldest
Is the true watchword—Never give up.

Never give up! though the grape shot may rattle,
And the full thunder-cloud over you burst,
Stand like a rock, and the storm or the battle
Little can harm you, though doing their worst.
Never give up if adversity presses,
Providence wisely has mingled the cup,
And the best counsel in all thy distresses,
Is the stout watchword of Never give up.

WATSON'S & CLARK'S

HIGH GRADE

Super-Phosphate of Lime.

Composed entirely of the Charleston Bone Phosphate, Sulphuric Acid and Ammonia. Warranted to analyse seven per cent. of Soluble Phosphoric Acid and one per cent. of Ammonia.

We are prepared to offer this reliable and superior Super-phosphate—after a test of more than five years in the cotton growing States of South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama, where its record is second to none other manufactured—not excepting Peruvian Guano and Pure Ground Bone, having a better record for cotton than these—to Planters and Dealers—in any quantity—at any railroad depot in the State, or at the factory, upon satisfactory terms.

Price per ton, delivered at any station on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad east of Henderson, or on the Wilmington and Weldon road north of Rocky Mount, for cash.

Put up in bags—very stout—for immediate use—or in good barrels—which we recommend as better, owing to the high grade of the article as ordered. Circulars and testimonials furnished upon application. All orders and communications addressed to
